Exhibit A

United States v. Esmeralda Salazar-Sandoval,
Case No. 08cr0285-MLH

MS. MORGAN: Mrs. Sandoval, do you swear or affirm that the statement you are about to give is the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Yes.

MS. MORGAN: Can you please state your name?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Maria Dolores Sandoval Peralta.

MS. MORGAN: Ms. Sandoval do you know Esmeralda Salazar Sandoval?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Yes, she is my daughter.

MS. MORGAN: And do you understand that why we're here today is for the purpose of gathering your statement for use at Ms. Salazar's trial?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Yes.

MS. MORGAN: Do you understand that the prosecutor or the U.S. Attorney in this case was invited to come today?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Yes.

MS. MORGAN: She didn't, she's not present today at this statement but if she were would you answer her questions?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Yes, of course.

MS. MORGAN: You said Ms. Salazar Sandoval was your daughter?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Yes.

MS. MORGAN: Where does she live?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Here. Here with me in this house.

MS. MORGAN: And where are you? Where is your house?

MRS. SANDOVAL: At Quintas del Rey the street is Nules and the number 424, yes, I think it's 524, 524 in Mexicali.

MS. MORGAN: And is that in Mexico?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Yes.

MS. MORGAN: Aside from your daughter Esmeralda and yourself, who else lives here?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Her husband.

MS. MORGAN: And what is his name?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Reynaldo.

MS. MORGAN: Do you know his last name?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Yes it's Peralta Medina or maybe it's Medina Peralta I'm not sure. It's one of those either Medina Peralta or Peralta Medina.

MS. MORGAN: And how long has Esmeralda been with Mr. Medina?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Esperanza?

MS. MORGAN: How long has your daughter been with him?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Like about 8 months. Here in this house we've lived here for 8 months. Before I don't know.

MS. MORGAN: Does your daughter have a car?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Yes.

MS. MORGAN: What kind of car is it?

MRS. SANDOVAL: She had a blue and white truck.

MS. MORGAN: Ms. Sandoval, I'm gonna back up for just a little. How is your health today?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Well.

MS. MORGAN: Ms. Sandoval, do you have any health problems?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Yes.

MS. MORGAN: Are you currently on any kind of medication?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Yes.

MS. MORGAN: Which medications are you on?

MRS. SANDOVAL: All of that there.

MS. MORGAN: We're going to go through them, alright?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Um hum.

MS. MORGAN: Is this one of your medications?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Yes, I take this for cholesterol.

MS. MORGAN: And what about this one?

MRS. SANDOVAL: This is so I can stay calm it's also to help me sleep at night.

MS. MORGAN: And this one?

MRS. SANDOVAL: It's for my heart it's called trita

MS. MORGAN: And this one?

MRS. SANDOVAL: This is also that's tritozina for the heart.

MS. MORGAN: And this one?

MRS. SANDOVAL: This is so I can. . it's a tranquilizer but it's for the day. It's something that will keep me calm. Like something for like this when I get this in my eye it's because I become very anxious and it starts trembling and it sort of feels numb like if I were going to have paralysis.

MS. MORGAN: What about this one?

MRS. SANDOVAL: It's Diuretic.

MS. MORGAN: Diuretic?

MRS. SANDOVAL: That's so I won't have fluid in my lungs. If I don't take this one I get all swollen and I can't breathe.

MS. MORGAN: Ms. Sandoval, I'm going to show you some pictures now. I'm going to ask you if you recognize them. I'm showing Ms. Sandoval what has been marked as Exhibit A for the purposes of this interview.

MRS. SANDOVAL: Those are my pills, the diuretics.

MS. MORGAN: I'm now showing Ms. Sandoval Exhibit B for this hearing. What are these?

MRS. SANDOVAL: This is a tranquilizer so it will help me with my nerves because I get this in my eye like if I'm going to have paralysis and these two are for my heart.

MS. MORGAN: I'm now showing you Exhibit C. Do you recognize these?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Yes.

MS. MORGAN: And what are they?

MRS. SANDOVAL: This is terazafina for the heart [for cholesterol correction] and this is for the heart terazafina.

MS. MORGAN: Ms. Sandoval, do these pictures fairly and accurately represent your medications?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Yes.

MS. MORGAN: Thank you.

MS. MORGAN: Ms. Sandoval, because of your medication and because of your health, are you able to travel?

MRS. SANDOVAL: No, I cannot travel. I get dizzy, my blood pressure goes down, I can't travel, I vomit a lot.

MS. MORGAN: Okay. Now I want to talk about Esmeralda's car again, okay? I'm now showing Ms. Sandoval what is marked Exhibit D for this interview. Do you recognize that?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Yes.

MS. MORGAN: What is that?

MRS. SANDOVAL: It's my daughter's truck.

MS. MORGAN: When did Esmeralda get that truck?

MRS. SANDOVAL: It's been like uh it would probably be like 8 or 9 months almost.

MS. MORGAN: And did that truck ever have problems? ... Excuse me. Did Esmeralda ever have problems with that truck?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Previously she didn't, not until the day she took it to the shop. It had been giving problems like for about a week.

MS. MORGAN: Can you describe the problems it was having?

MRS. SANDOVAL: It would just like turn off and then it would like shake all over and then it would like go off and then go on again and that's why they said it was something that had to do with the electrical problem. Probably the alternator I don't know.

MS. MORGAN: Now Ms. Sandoval, you mentioned that Ms. Salazar took it to a shop. About how long before her arrest did she do that?

MRS. SANDOVAL: About half a week before.

MS. MORGAN: Did you ever go with Ms. Salazar to take it to a shop?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Yes, one day I went with her but we didn't leave the truck there. We came back both of us in the truck. Then on the following day she went back herself.

MS. MORGAN: The day that she went by herself, did she tell you what she planned to do?

MRS. SANDOVAL: No. She told me that she would go to the other side if they needed her to bring anything that the truck needed. But that she didn't know and she said "why" and I said because I wanted you to bring me some tennis shoes. But she said she still didn't know. She said she would let me know later.

MS. MORGAN: When Esmeralda told you those things was that the day she was she dropped the car off or after?

MRS. SANDOVAL: That she was going to the other side for the parts? I didn't understand.

MS. MORGAN: Let me ask it a different way. You just told us that you went with her one day to drop the car off but you didn't drop the car off that day.

MRS. SANDOVAL: Correct.

MS. MORGAN: The next day what did Esmeralda tell you she planned to do with the car?

MRS. SANDOVAL: That she was going to take it to a different shop that a female friend had told her to take it to.

MS. MORGAN: Did she drop the car off somewhere that day?

MRS. SANDOVAL: At the shop. She told me she had dropped it off at the shop.

MS. MORGAN: Did she come back without the car?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Yes, she came back without the car.

MS. MORGAN: Did Esmeralda tell you when she planned to pick up the car?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Whenever they called her and let her know that it was ready. That they were going to check it to see what was wrong with it.

MS. MORGAN: Now I want to talk about the day Esmeralda was arrested. Did you see Esmeralda that morning?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Yes.

MS. MORGAN: What was she wearing?

MRS. SANDOVAL: She was wearing levi pants and she had a blouse but I can't remember, I'm not sure about the color. But she did have a red sweater on it was something like that type like yours. And it was corduroy and it had some buttons down and but it was red and it was like a jacket and she was also wearing the levi pants and some tennis shoes.

MS.MORGAN: That morning when you saw her, did Esmeralda tell you what her plans were for that day?

MRS. SANDOVAL: No, she just said she was going to pick up the car.

MS.MORGAN: Did she tell you what she planned to do with the car?

MRS. SANDOVAL: She said I'm going to go pick up the car. If it's ready I'll come back and I'm going to go get the car, if it's ready I'll just come back and if they ask me to go and get a part, well then I'll go and get it.

MS. MORGAN: Did you see Esmeralda again that day?

MRS. SANDOVAL: I didn't see her anymore.

MS. MORGAN: And how did Esmeralda leave to go get the car? How did Esmeralda leave when she told you she went to get the car?

MRS. SANDOVAL: In a cab.

MS.MORGAN: After Ms. Salazar's arrest, did you go to the port of entry?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Yes. We did go but I'm not sure how many days after and but it was a struggle it was a hassle. We went here, we went there, we didn't know where we would get the things. But we did go once she told us to come and get them. But we went to the port of entry the new one.

MS. MORGAN: Who is we? Who did you go with?

MRS. SANDOVAL: With my son-in-law. With Reynaldo.

MS. MORGAN: And why did you go to the port of entry?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Because we went to get my daughter's belongings.

MS. MORGAN: Did they, did they give the belongings to you or Reynaldo?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Reynaldo.

MS. MORGAN: Can you tell me how that happened, what you saw?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Yes we both went. But then the officer said only that only him, only one person is allowed. So he said if you want you can wait for me in the truck but I said no I'll go with you. And I was there but I was just outside. He just went in barely in.

MS. MORGAN: And when he came out what was he carrying?

MRS. SANDOVAL: The little bag.

MS. MORGAN: Ms. Sandoval, is this the bag you're referring to?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Yes, this one. The only thing he had. He walked out with it in his hand.

MS.MORGAN: And what was, was there anything in the bag?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Okay that was there, like the ring, the little chain and these earrings that belong to her and her license and everything that's here that's what it had.

MS. MORGAN: Was this picture one of the things in the bag?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Yes she would always carry it with her. It's her father.

MS. MORGAN: Now, I'm showing you, um, a plastic card that appears to be her license? Is that the license you're talking about ?

MRS. SANDOVAL: Yes, that's her license.

MS. MORGAN: Where was that?

MRS. SANDOVAL: In the purse along with this inside here.

MS. MORGAN: Okay. Okay. Thank you Ms. Sandoval. I have no further questions.

This is a transcription of the testimony given and solemnly affirmed to be truthful by Mrs. Maria Dolores Sandoval Perales on April 4 of this year at the residence located at 524 Nules Street, Quintas del Rey Subsection, Mexicali, Baja California. The aforementioned testimony was translated by Mrs. Carmen Alicia De La Parra translating from English to Spanish and vice versa. This testimony has been reproduced in the questions and answers below.

DE LA PARRA: Ma'm they are going to ask you to raise your right hand to take an oath. You may raise it in this manner.

SANDOVAL: Yes.

DE LA PARRA: Mrs. Sandoval, do you swear or affirm that the testimony you are about to give is the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth?

SANDOVAL: Yes.

DE LA PARRA: You may lower your hand, thank you. Can you please tell us your name?

SANDOVAL: Maria Dolores Sandoval Perales.

DE LA PARRA: Mrs. Sandoval, do you know Esmeralda Salazar Sandoval?

SANDOVAL: Yes, she is my daughter.

DE LA PARRA: And you understand the reason for which we are here today is for you to give a statement to be used at Esmeralda Salazar Sandoval's trial?

SANDOVAL: Yes.

DE LA PARRA: And you understand that the prosecutor . . . the person taking the case to court on behalf of the Government was invited to come today?

SANDOVAL: Yes.

DE LA PARRA: She is not present here today, but had she come, would you have answered her questions?

SANDOVAL: Yes, of course.

DE LA PARRA: You said that Miss Salazar Sandoval is your daughter?

SANDOVAL: Yes.

DE LA PARRA: Where does she live?

SANDOVAL: Here. Here with me in this house.

DE LA PARRA: And where are you? Where is your house?

SANDOVAL: Quintas del Rey, 424 Nules Street, I think it's 524, 524, pardon me, yes. In Mexicali.

DE LA PARRA: And is this in Mexico?

SANDOVAL: Yes.

DE LA PARRA: In addition to your daughter Esmeralda and yourself, who else lives here?

SANDOVAL: Her husband.

DE LA PARRA: What is his name?

SANDOVAL: Reynaldo.

DE LA PARRA: Do you know his last name?

SANDOVAL: Yes, Peralta Medina or I don't know if it's the other way around. Medina Peralta, just so, those two. Peralta Medina, Medina.

DE LA PARRA: And how long has Esperanza been with Mr. Medina?

SANDOVAL: Esperanza?

DE LA PARRA: Esmeralda. How long has your daughter been with him?

SANDOVAL: About 8 months. It's been 8 months since we've been living with her in this house. Before that, I don't know for how long.

DE LA PARRA: Does your daughter have a car?

SANDOVAL: Yes.

DE LA PARRA: What car does she have?

SANDOVAL: She had a blue and white truck.

DE LA PARRA: Mrs. Sandoval, I'm going to go back a bit. How is your health today?

SANDOVAL: Fine.

DE LA PARRA: Mrs. Sandoval, do you have any health problems?

SANDOVAL: Yes.

DE LA PARRA: Are you presently taking medication?

SANDOVAL: Yes.

DE LA PARRA: What medications do you take?

SANDOVAL: Everything that I have there.

DE LA PARRA: We're going to run through them, okay?

SANDOVAL: Fine.

DE LA PARRA: Is this one of your medications?

SANDOVAL: Yes, it's for cholesterol, I take it.

DE LA PARRA: And this one?

SANDOVAL: It's for nervousness, to be able to sleep at night.

DE LA PARRA: And this one?

SANDOVAL: It's for the heart, it's Tritace.

DE LA PARRA: And this one?

SANDOVAL: As well, its Digoxin for the heart.

DE LA PARRA: And this one?

SANDOVAL: This one is also a sedative, but to feel calm during the day.

It's more for this, part of my eye that gets . . . since my nerves are affected . . . my face trembles a lot. It gets numb as if if [I/it] were to get paralyzed.

DE LA PARRA: And this one?

SANDOVAL: It's a diuretic.

DE LA PARRA: A diuretic?

SANDOVAL: To get fluid out of the lungs. If I don't take this one I get all swollen and can't breath.

DE LA PARRA: Mrs. Sandoval, now I'm going to show you some photographs and ask you if you recognize them.

SANDOVAL: Yes, they are my pills, the diuretics.

DE LA PARRA: What are these?

SANDOVAL: This one for sleeping and so is this one. But this one is a relaxant for the nerve in my eye, well, for calming down. It's like if a paralysis is coming on and this helps me a great deal to calm down some. And this is the same, for the heart.

DE LA PARRA: Now, I'm showing you Exhibit "C". Do you recognize these?

SANDOVAL: Yes.

DE LA PARRA: What are they?

SANDOVAL: Pravastatin for cholesterol and this one is also for the heart, Tritace.

DE LA PARRA: And do these photographs demonstrate the . . . do they reflect the medications exactly the way they are?

SANDOVAL: Yes.

DE LA PARRA: Thank you. Due to the medications you take and to your health, can you travel?

SANDOVAL: No, I cannot travel. I become very dizzy, my blood pressure goes down, I feel . . . no, I cannot travel. I vomit a great deal.

DE LA PARRA: Now we are again going to talk about Esmeralda's car. Do you recognize it?

SANDOVAL: Yes.

DE LA PARRA: What is it?

SANDOVAL: It's my daughter's truck.

DE LA PARRA: Since when has Esmeralda had this truck?

SANDOVAL: It's been about, by now it's going to be about 8 or 9 months.

DE LA PARRA: And did Esmeralda ever have any problems with that truck?

SANDOVAL: Not before. Until the day she took it to the shop. It had been giving trouble for about a week or so.

DE LA PARRA: Can you tell us what types of problems it had?

SANDOVAL: Yes. It would shut off . . . and, uh, it was rocking a lot. It was shaking like when it wants to shut off, but it would turn on and off. This is why [I/she] thought it was something electrical, possibly the alternator, I don't know.

DE LA PARRA: Mrs. Sandoval, you mentioned that Mrs. Salazar took it to the shop, the truck. About how long before her arrest was this?

SANDOVAL: About half a week before.

DE LA PARRA: And did you ever go with Mrs. Salazar to take it to the shop?

SANDOVAL: Yes, we went but we didn't leave it. I went with her but did not leave it. The two of us returned in the truck. She went the following day.

DE LA PARRA: On the day that she went by herself, did she tell you what she was going to do?

SANDOVAL: No. She mentioned that if . . . I asked her if she was going to cross to the other side and she told me she didn't know. That if they asked her to go bring what was needed for the truck she would go, but if they didn't she wouldn't. "Why?" she asked me. I told her it was because I wanted her to bring me some tennis shoes. She told me she didn't know whether they would need her to go or not. "I'll tell you later," she told me.

DE LA PARRA: When Esmeralda told you this, was it on the day she went to drop the car off or was it afterward?

SANDOVAL: That she was going to cross to the other side for parts? I don't understand.

DE LA PARRA: I'm going to ask this in a different way. You told us that on one day you went to drop the car off at the shop but you didn't leave it that day.

SANDOVAL: That's right.

DE LA PARRA: On the following day, what did Esmeralda tell you she was planning to do with the car?

SANDOVAL: That she was going to take it to another shop that a girlfriend of hers had recommended to her.

DE LA PARRA: And on that day, did she leave the car somewhere?

SANDOVAL: Well, at the shop. She told me she had left it at the shop.

DE LA PARRA: Did she come back without the car?

SANDOVAL: Yes, she returned without the car.

DE LA PARRA: Did Esmeralda tell you when she was planning on picking the car up?

SANDOVAL: Once they called her to say it was ready. They were going to check it to, to see what was wrong with it.

DE LA PARRA: Now we're going to talk about the day Esmeralda was arrested. Did you see her that morning?

SANDOVAL: Yes.

DE LA PARRA: What was she wearing?

SANDOVAL: Denim slacks and a blouse, no . . . I'm not sure what color the blouse was, because she put on a red sweater over it, like a, well like the one you have, but made of, well, like corduroy. But like open, with little buttons and little lapels. Red in color. But as to the blouse, I don't remember. Yes, I don't remember because she was wearing the jacket over it. The denim slacks and tennis shoes.

DE LA PARRA: That morning, when you saw her, did Esmeralda tell you what she was planning on doing the rest of the day?

SANDOVAL: No, she didn't tell me. She just told me she was going to pick her car up.

DE LA PARRA: And did she tell you what she was going to do with the car?

SANDOVAL: No, she told me that if it was ready, she was coming back here. In other words, "I'll be right back," she said to me. "If my car is ready I'll be right back. If I go pick up, to bring what they tell me to, I'll go and get it."

DE LA PARRA: Did you see Esmeralda again that day?

SANDOVAL: I did not see her again.

DE LA PARRA: When Esmeralda said she was going for the car, how did she go?

SANDOVAL: In a taxi.

DE LA PARRA: After they arrested Mrs. Salazar, did you go to the port of entry?

SANDOVAL: Yes, but I'm not certain how many days afterwards. Because it took a lot of effort to, we went from one place to another. Because we couldn't find where they would give us the belongings, until she told us that yes, that we could pick them up and we went to the new port of entry.

DE LA PARRA: Who went? Who did you go with?

SANDOVAL: With my son-in-law. Together with Reynaldo.

DE LA PARRA: And why did you go to the port of entry?

SANDOVAL: Because we went to pick up my daughter's belongings.

DE LA PARRA: Did they turn over the belongings to you or to Reynaldo?

SANDOVAL: To Reynaldo.

DE LA PARRA: Can you tell us how that happened, what is it that you saw?

SANDOVAL: Yes, it's that we both went. But the officer said that only he was going to enter. In other words, you know, one person. He entered. He said to me, "If you want, stay in the truck," he says to me. "No," I tell him, "I'll go with you." We went, I remained right outside the door and he entered. Just like so, a bit on the inside, and the officer took him inside.

DE LA PARRA: And what did he have when he came out?

SANDOVAL: The little bag.

DE LA PARRA: Mrs. Sandoval, is this the bag you are referring to?

SANDOVAL: Yes, this one. It's the only thing he came out with, with her little bag in his hand. That's all.

DE LA PARRA: And was there something inside the bag?

SANDOVAL: Yes, that was there, her ring, the ring, the little chain, these little earrings which are hers and her license. What was there was that and this here.

DE LA PARRA: Was the photograph one of the things that was in the bag?

SANDOVAL: Yes, she always keeps it there. It's her father.

DE LA PARRA: I'm now showing you a plastic card that seems to be her license. Is this the license you are referring to?

SANDOVAL: Yes, that's her license.

DE LA PARRA: And where was that?

SANDOVAL: In the bag, together with this, inside.

DE LA PARRA: Thank you very much Mrs. Sandoval. I have no further questions.

SANDOVAL: Sí.

DE LA PARRA: ¿Qué es?

Mano Dolores Sandoval Perales
Juan Juan

Es la camioneta de mi hija.

¿Desde cuándo tiene Esmeralda esa camioneta?

Hace como, va a hacer como de 8 o 9 meses, algo así, ya.

DE LA PARRA: ¿Y Esmeralda alguna vez tuvo problemas con esa camioneta?

SANDOVAL: Antes, no. Hasta el día que la llevó al taller. Tenía una semana fallando, algo así.

DE LA PARRA: ¿Nos puede decir qué tipo de problemas tenía?

SANDOVAL: Sí. Se apagaba. . . y este se mecía mucho. Se estremecía así como si cuando está así queriéndose apagar pero se apagaba y prendía. Por eso creía que era algo eléctrico, el alternador posiblemente, no se.

DE LA PARRA: Sra. Sandoval, dijo usted que la Sra. Salazar la llevó al taller, la camioneta. ¿Como cuánto tiempo antes de que la arrestaran fue esto?

SANDOVAL: Como una media semana antes.

DE LA PARRA: ¿Y usted alguna vez fue con la Sra. Salazar al taller a llevarlo?

SANDOVAL: Sí, nosotros fuimos pero no la dejamos. Fui con ella pero no la dejé. Nos venimos las 2 en la camioneta. Al siguiente día ella fue.

DE LA PARRA: ¿El día que fue ella sola, le dijo qué era lo que iba hacer?

SANDOVAL: No. Me comentó que si . . . yo le pregunté que si iba a ir al otro lado y ella me dijo que no sabía. Que si le pedían que fuese a traer lo que ocupaba la camioneta iba a ir, pero que si no, no. "¿Por qué?" me dice. Yo le dije porque quería que me trajera unos tenis. Me dijo ella que no sabía si la iban a ocupar siempre que fuera a traerla o no. "Después te digo," me dijo.

DE LA PARRA: ¿Cuando Esmeralda le dijo eso, fue el día que ella fue a dejar el carro o fue después?

SANDOVAL: ¿Que iba a ir al otro lado por las partes? No entiendo.

DE LA PARRA: Le voy a preguntar de otra forma. Usted nos dijo que un día fueron a dejar el carro al taller pero no lo dejaron ese día.

SANDOVAL: Así es.

Maria Dolores Sandoval Perez
[Signature]

DE LA PARRA: ¿Al siguiente día, qué le dijo Esmeralda que planeaba hacer con el carro?

Que iba ir a llevarlo a otro taller que le había recomendado una amiga.

DE LA PARRA: ¿Y ese día, ella dejó el carro en alguna parte?

SANDOVAL: Pues en el taller. Me dijo que lo había dejado en el taller.

DE LA PARRA: ¿Regresó ella sin el carro?

SANDOVAL: Sí, regresó sin el carro.

DE LA PARRA: ¿Esmeralda le dijo cuándo planeaba recoger el carro?

SANDOVAL: Cuando le hablan que ya estaba. Iban a checarlo, pues, para ver como, qué tenía.

DE LA PARRA: Ahora, vamos a hablar del día que arrestaron a Esmeralda. ¿Esa mañana, usted la vió?

SANDOVAL: Sí.

DE LA PARRA: ¿Que traía puesto?

SANDOVAL: Un pantalón de levis y una blusa, no. . . la blusa no estoy segura que color era porque se puso un sweater rojo arriba, como tipo, pues, así como el suyo pero de como de pana. Pero con botoncitos así abierto y solapitas aquí. Pero en rojo. Eso sí, no me acuerdo la blusa. Si, no recuerdo porque llevaba el saco encima. El pantalón de levis y tenis.

DE LA PARRA: ¿Esa mañana cuando la vió usted, Esmeralda le dijo qué planeaba hacer el resto del día?

SANDOVAL: No, no me dijo. Nomás me dijo que iba a ir a recoger su carro.

DE LA PARRA: ¿Y le dijo qué iba hacer con el carro?

SANDOVAL: No, me dijo que si ya estaba se venía para aca. O sea, "ahorita vengo," me dijo. "Si ya está mi carro ahorita vengo. Si voy a recoger, a traer lo que me mandan a traer voy a ir a traerlo."

DE LA PARRA: ¿Usted volvió a ver a Esmeralda ese día?

SANDOVAL: Yo ya no la vi.

Maria Gallego Sandoval Peralez me me

DE LA PARRA: ¿Cuando Esmeralda dijo que iba a ir por el carro, cómo se fue?

En taxi.

DE LA PARRA: ¿Después de que arrestaron a la Sra. Salazar, usted fue a la garita?

SANDOVAL: Sí, pero no estoy segura cuántos días después. Porque batallamos para, fuimos a una parte, a otra. Porque no hallábamos en donde nos las entregaran las pertenencias. Hasta que ella nos dijo que si las podíamos recoger y fuimos a la garita nueva.

DE LA PARRA: ¿Quiénes son los que fueron? ¿Con quién fue usted?

SANDOVAL: Con mi yerno. Con Reynaldo fuimos.

DE LA PARRA: ¿Y por qué fueron a la garita?

SANDOVAL: Porque fuimos a recoger las pertenencias de mi hija.

DE LA PARRA: ¿Le entregaron las pertenencias a usted o a Reynaldo?

SANDOVAL: A Reynaldo.

DE LA PARRA: ¿Nos puede decir cómo fue eso, que fue lo que usted vió?

SANDOVAL: Sí, es que fuimos los dos. Pero dijo el oficial que solamente él iba a entrar. O sea, una persona, verdad? El entró. Me dijo, "Si quiere quédese usted en la camioneta," me dice. "No," le digo, "voy contigo." Fuimos, yo me quede así afuera de la puerta y él entró. No mas así por dentrito y lo metió el oficial.

DE LA PARRA: ¿Y cuando salió, qué traía?

SANDOVAL: La bolsita.

DE LA PARRA: ¿Sra. Sandoval, ésta es la bolsa a la que se refiere?

SANDOVAL: Si, ésta. Es lo único que salió con su bolsita, así en la mano. Nada más.

DE LA PARRA: ¿Y había algo dentro la bolsa?

SANDOVAL: Sí, estaba eso, su anillo, el anillo, la cadenita, estos aretitos que son de ella y su licencia. Eso era y esto que hay aquí es lo que había ahí.

Monica Dolores Sandoval Perez
[Signature]

DE LA PARRA: ¿La fotografía era una de las cosas que estaba en la bolsa?

Sí, ella siempre la cargaba ahí. Es su papá.

DE LA PARRA: Ahora le estoy mostrando una tarjeta de plástico que parece ser su licencia.
¿Esa es la licencia a la que se refiere usted?

SANDOVAL: Sí, ésta es su licencia.

DE LA PARRA: ¿Y eso, donde estaba?

SANDOVAL: En la bolsa, junto con esto, adentro.

DE LA PARRA: Muchas gracias Sra. Sandoval. No tengo más preguntas.
